

CURRENT SUITE OF STUDENT SURVEYS CONDUCTED AT GRIFFITH UNIVERSITY

	SURVEY NAME	MEASURING?	SURVEYING?
	Starting@Griffith	The transition to university life at Griffith	Commencing first-year domestic undergraduate students experience@griffith - Student Experience of Course (SEC) - Student Experience of Teaching (SET)	The student experience of courses and teaching	All students
	International Student Barometer (ISB)	Pre-arrival and on-going experiences of international students at their chosen institution and country	All international students
	Student Experience Survey (SES)	Higher education experiences regarding skills development, learner engagement, teaching quality, student support and learning resources.	Broadly speaking, first and latter year undergraduate students
	Tell Us Survey	Non-academic services, covering Student Admin, Student Services, Library, INS, Recreation Services, Griffith International and Food.	Any student not in the SES population
	Graduate Outcomes Survey (GOS) - Course Experience Questionnaire (CEQ) - Postgraduate Research Experience Questionnaire (PREQ)	Employment and/or further study outcomes, program satisfaction and postgraduate research satisfaction.	Recent graduates, coursework students and postgraduate research students only
	Employer Satisfaction Survey (ESS)	Employer satisfaction with graduates' generic skills, technical skills and work readiness	Employers of recent graduates

The Student Experience Survey, the Graduate Outcomes Survey, and the Employer Satisfaction Survey make up the Quality Indicators for Learning & Teaching (QILT) suite of surveys. These national surveys cover the student lifecycle from commencement through to employment and are currently administered by the Social Research Centre on behalf of the Federal Government.